Grandma is very old and gray.
But fashion can not foil her.
For out she bounces every day And tangoes like a broiler.

WARREN LARUE THOMAS

Distinguished Knight Templar and Popular Kentuckian Died Monday Evening at Tucson
Arizona

Past Grand Master of Grand Encampment K.
T. of the U. S. A.

Warren LaRue Thomas, formerly a leading citizen of Maysville, and a native of Danville, Ky., died at his home in Tucson, Arizona, at 6 p. m. last Monday.

The news of Mr. Thomas' death came in a dispatch to his personal friend, Col. E. A. Robinson of this city and was received with sincere regret by the scores of friends who valued his magnetic acquaintance.

He is survived by his wife, but no children.

Mr. Thomas was a thirty-third degree Mason and Past Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templars of the United States.

As a member of Maysville Community No. 10, he was loved and esteemed to a high degree by his fellow members.

Mr. Thomas was the Democratic nominee for Congress in this district in 1896.

No arrangements have been given out, as yet, as to his burial, but that his remains will be brought to Kentucky for final interment.

VETERAN MERCHANT GIVES EN- TERTAINING REMINISCENCES OF PAST 54 YEARS.

1860-1914.

The writer's business career spans the period between the above number of years. That business methods have undergone a wonderful, although gradual change in these years is patent to observing elderly people. He well remembers during the 'sixties, perhaps yet in the early 'seventies, proprietors of our stores had checker boards and would daily have friends to call in for a social game. In the event a customer would come in he was asked to wait a little while; the game will soon be finished. If the stakes were for a social glass, the waiting one, if of the masculine gender, was invited to join.

In those days our merchants, especially dealers in drygoods and clothing, would go east twice a year and lay in their supplies. On their return they would place an "ad." in our newspapers that would run without a change no less than six months. "Easy for the printer." Readers of advertisements had them memorized. Later, commercial travelers, then known as "drummers," made their appearance in our midst.
Many of them were men of fine address, well versed in commercial affairs. Our home merchants, through their intercourse with them, began to get better posted in values and styles, owing that commercial travelers find it advantageous to see to it that their patrons acquire "good sellers."

Soon after intelligent advertising came in vogue. Year after year this branch of business (for it has become a branch of every merchant's business) has grown until it has become a "science." Let me say right here that the field for young men that fit themselves for this profession is limitless. Experts earn fabulous salaries. After "scanning" over the marriage notices, the average woman will "read" the drygoods "ads;" the young and would-be young men "read" the sportsman's column, and then "scan" over "ads" they may be interested in.

It is gratifying that there is at present a strong movement in our state for better education. Young men, no matter what vocation you intend to fit yourself for, "secure an education." Many of the most prominent business men of America were born of poor parents, but by dint of hard work secured the funds to educate themselves and are now shining lights of our country. "An education is the stepping stone to success."

FIERCEST BATTLE OF WAR IS NOW RAGING

Northern France, November 24.—The combined British and French armies have been attacked by the Germans in force from Ypres to Labasse and a battle on the scale of Marne and the Yser and the first and second battles of Ypres has begun.

In this terrific struggle into which the Germans enter with large reinforcements and fresh guns, the French and British armies are acting directly in concert. Already the fight has been in progress 48 hours. The mightiest guns in the world's military history have been brought into carrying death and destruction from 15 to 18 miles from their placements.

morrow to gather some data regarding of our government. Mr. Kehoe was Covington, Va., November 23.—Combing his 14-year-old wife's hair today a lock of it had been clipped out, and a short time later in a jealous rage shot and killed her in her parents' home in Dry Run, a suburb of Covington.

He then turned the revolver on himself and inflicted what is believed to be a mortal wound.

Three Reasons Why Christmas Shopping Should Begin Now

No. 1—Stocks are at their best.

No. 2—Less hurry therefore less fatigue, wiser selecting, better attention.

No. 3—Humane consideration for the people who serve you. Behind the counter nerves and muscles are stretched taut during the final rush of holiday shopping. Help lighten the burden.

Saturday Will Be Red Letter Day and Thursday Will Be Thanksgiving

EVERY YEAR THERE IS A WAR ON WITH TURKEY THAT ENDS SATISFACTORILY WITH CRAN-BERRY SAUCE INSTEAD OF AEROPLANES. SO MAY IT BE—EVEN MORE ABUNDANTLY. WITH SET-TLED PEACE, RETURNING PROSPERITY, AND WITH GOOD WILL TO ALL THE WORLD, WITH WHOM WE ARE ON GOOD TERMS, THIS YEAR'S THANKSGIVING SHOULD BE THE CHEERIEST AND HAPPIEST DAY OF MANY A YEAR.

IT IS A HOME DAY TO BE OBSERVED BY ALL THE FAMILY—BY THE LADS AND LASSIES HON-ORING THEIR PARENTS.

LIKE ALL OTHER TOWNS, THERE IS IN MAYSVILLE NOW AND THEN A TIME WHEN WORK IS SCARCE AND LESS LABOR EMPLOYED, AND THOUGH THERE ARE JUST AS MANY MOUTHS TO FILL AND AS MANY BODIES TO CLOTHE, THERE IS LESS MONEY COMING IN TO DO IT WITH.

THERE ARE PEOPLE HERE WHO WILL SUFFER QUIETLY RATHER THAN PUBLISH THEIR PRIVA-TIONS TO THE PUBLIC.

PUT YOURSELF IN THEIR PLACE AND AFTERWARD, AND THUS MAKE FOR

TO GIVE THEM FOOD FIRST AND CLOTHES A DOUBLE THANKSGIVING TIME.
